SafeGuard World International's CTO to Speak about the Challenges of Paying Global Employees at the CIPP Annual Payroll and Pensions Conference

Sandbach, United Kingdom (October 9, 2014) - SafeGuard World International (SGWI), a leading provider of global managed payroll, global employment outsourcing and international HR services is proud to announce that its Chief Technology Officer, Tristan Woods, will present a session on global managed payroll at the Chartered Institute of Payroll Professionals' (CIPP) 2014 Annual Payroll and Pensions Conference and Awards on October 9, 2014 at the Celtic Manor Resort, Wales.

SGWI is a proud sponsor of this event which will cover topics ranging from how to prepare an organization for automatic enrollment and forthcoming changes to payroll and pension's legislation along with what should be done to prepare and comply.

Tristan was invited to speak at this event about funding global payroll. He will explore the complexities of the international payments landscape and discuss the methods that various companies have adopted to cater for the challenges along with background information on the nature of international payments and common issues that often arise. This session will be helpful to Payroll, HR and Treasury professionals who are responsible for managing international payments to fund employees and tax agencies around the world.

Tristan commented, "My colleagues know me as a 'self-confessed Payroll geek' and I'm always happy spending my time talking with like-minded payroll professionals about how to improve their overall operations. International Payments is a complex area and I'm looking forward to helping folks understand how to navigate the landscape to implement an efficient but controlled environment internationally."
